PANTHER PRESS AROUND THE CAMPUS

Angel Island

Recently the 5th grade went to Angel Island. (Ms. Tom, Ms. Andersen, and Ms. Maloney) Kiana Shibata said, "It was very fun, because you got to act and do the jobs of a soldier."

Andrea Lopez said, "The stations were my favorite part. I liked the Compass hike the most out of all of the stations because you get to work a compass and find your own way back to camp." The stations include the Militia training, Flag signaling, the Bake house, the Compass hike, and Kitchen patrol.

Haiston Fleming says, "The night hike wasn't as much fun going down as apposed to hiking up, my legs fell asleep on the way down."

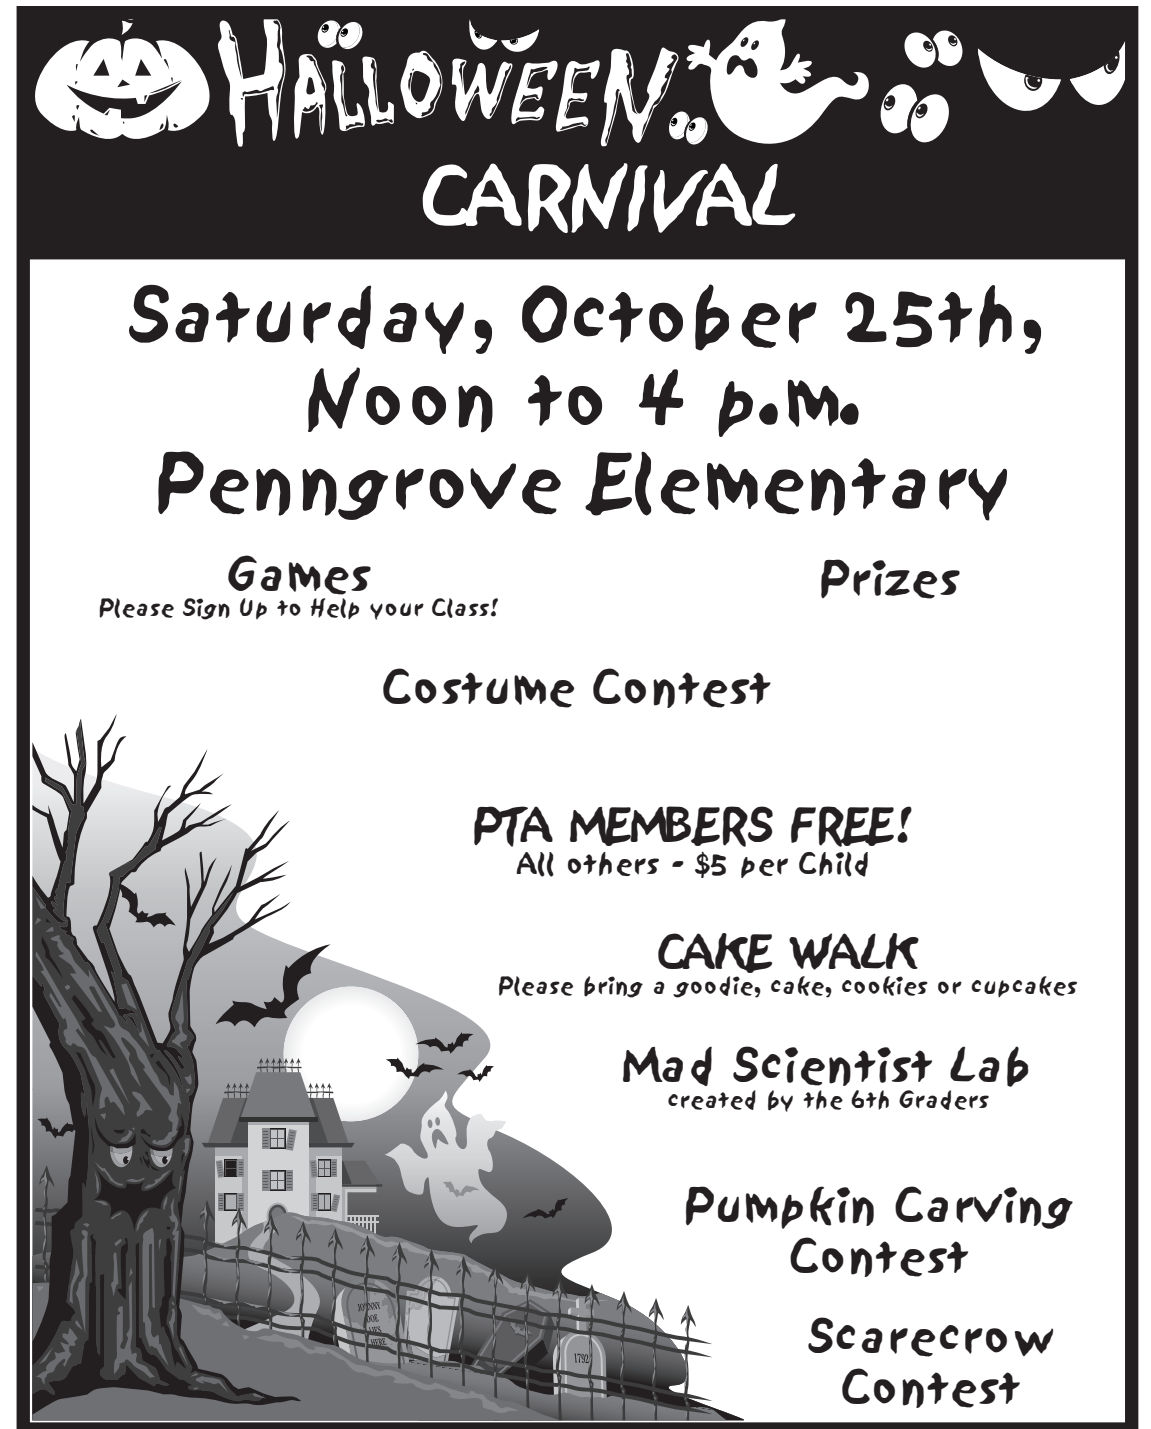

Sarah Moore said, "I recommend this field trip to this years next 5th graders because it was a good experience and it was so fun." So for all of you oncoming 5th grade make sure you can come on this amazing trip

Fort Ross

Ms. Maloney says, "The reason for this trip is to provide the students with a tangible hands on experience that will help make history meaning full, alive, and memorable. It provides another way of learning." Ms Maloney says "It's better to be there so you can see what the place looks like instead of getting the wrong picture in you head. "She also includes " you can also remember the place better if you go there."

Kyle Challe says, "My favorite part of the trip was getting to march with the guns, and doing the night watch."

"I liked acting like someone else because I got to not be me for once." Riley Cheda said.
